Dear Dr. Burleigh:

At the request of Miss Helen Nellies, Genealogist,

I am forwarding application recently received by her, from Mrs. Lois Westley, applying for membership in our Branch. Miss Nellies would like your opinion of this application, where her ancestors appear to have been located.

When I was in Merrickville this summer, Mr. Kidd of Burlington Rapids, told me that the first branch formed in, I think, he said

Augusta township, was formed by John Church (my cousin, his mother was Amanda Merrick Church) by another and Mr. Kidd was one of the three forming group. That was quite a number of years ago.

Miss Nellies will thank you for any help on this application.

Yours sincerely,

Kathleen O'Loughlin, U.E.
Sec'y St. Catharines & District Branch,

Vice President, Dominion Council,

United Empire Loyalists of Canada.

I am the g. g. granddaughter of Wm + Sylvia (Constock)
Merrick of Elizabethtown, my g. grandfather, son of above was christened at St. Stephens Ch. - Wilkesboro by Rev John Beckwith (over) in May 1794

They were here before that as Sylvia
(Comstock) Minch witnessed the marriage of her sister Leprina Comstock to Lieut
Thomas Smyth of King's Royal Regiment of New York on Dec. 20. 1786 at Oswego. I have a copy of both these documents, Lydia
Comstock the other sister married George Purvis.

On my mother's side, her mother was
Jane Beckett of Hempstead whose nephew
James Beckett married Edith Caniff
da. of Dr. Caniff of Caniff town

SPANISH MUSIC AND RUSSIAN IS GIVEN AT CLUB

The artistically planned and representative program of Russian and Spanish music given Monday afternoon by the Women's Musical Club, was much appreciated by the members. The program was given in the private dining room of the Hotel Saskatchewan. The general conveners for this meeting were Miss Josephine Radcliffe and Miss Margaret Blacklock.

The program opened with Dohnany's "Rhapsody in F Minor," played with vividness by Mrs. Elsa Schneider. This was followed by two beautifully rendered vocal solos, "Song of India" (Rimsky-Korsakow) and "Break, Oh Day" (Sanderson), given by Mrs. Ernest Patch.

The fine standard of the music was carried out through all the numbers, the interesting repertoire losing none of the atmospheric charm in the hands of the performing artists. The vocalists included Mrs. W. J. Harper and Miss Gertrude Legate. Piano duets from Moszkowski "Spanish Dances" were offered by Miss Helen Graham and Mrs. Percy Symons.

Miss Betty Brunyee played the "Hymn To The Sun" by Rimsky-Korsakow, with artistry. A violin solo by Miss Lois Welsman showed fine interpretation in this young artist. The accompanists for the afternoon were Mrs. W. J. Mars and Miss Josephine Radcliffe.

Convention Echoes

The country deacon had just come home from a convention of his church in a large city. His wife was busily plying him with questions:

Wife: "I guess you heard a lot of swell singin' in that big church?"

Deacon: "Yep! but they sang mostly a lot of them there anthems."

Wife: "What's anthems?"

Deacon: "Well, I don't know jist 'zaetly how to explain that to you but it's like this. Suppose I was to say to you, 'The cows are in the pasture.' That wouldn't be no anthem. But supposin' I said, 'The cows, the spotted cows, the brindle cows, the mooley cows are in the pasture, pasture, pasture.' That would be an anthem."—Galion Seal.

MRS. J. G. DAVISON

Elmbrook.—Mr. and Mrs. J. DeLong and Mr. and Mrs. Everett DeLong were in attendance at the obsequies of the former's sister, Mrs. J. G. Davison at Newcastle on Thursday. Mrs. Davison passed away at the Toronto General Hospital on Tuesday morning, Jan. 19th, after a couple of weeks illness. On Christmas Day she reached her 79th birthday. She was born in Hillier, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. DeLong, a descendant of U. S. parents. Her pastor, Rev. M. J. J. J., assisted by Rev. W. P. J. J. of Newcastle, conducted the service and spoke very comforting words so very highly of her kind, quiet and Christian faith. The service was held in the pretty cemetery at New-

WANTS INFORMATION OF DELONG FAMILY

Mrs. Ernest Terry, Hillier, is collecting information and data for the DeLong genealogy. Anyone who is a descendant of the DeLong pioneers will confer a great favor if they will send to Mrs. Terry any information that will assist in the work that calls for much time and labor for those who bear the name and are of DeLong descent. The progenitors of the DeLong families of Simon DeLong and Henry DeLong, Ameliasburg and Jerry DeLong, Big Island. The DeLong family supplied many good men and true to the Royal cause in times of Britain's sorest need; and they were obliged in consequence to abandon all worthy possessions and fly for their lives to Canada.

They formerly lived in Dutchess Co., New York, in a pleasant and prosperous community and in affluence; they came here in poverty and settled in an uninviting wilderness, which, by the exertions of themselves and men of similar stamp has been converted into one of the finest countries of the present time. Any descendants who can furnish any information will oblige Mrs. Terry, Hillier, Ont., by sending it, at the earliest convenient date.

DEATH'S SUDDEN CALL

MR. GEO. WELSMAN ANSWERS SUMMONS

Very great sympathy is extended to Rev. G. C. Welsman, pastor of the Church of Christ, in the sudden death of his father, Mr. Geo. Welsman, who expired very suddenly at his son's residence, Queen-st., on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 3, after returning from a walk with his little granddaughter Lois. They were constant companions and will be missed by many of our citizens who were accustomed to seeing them always together in their daily walks around town. Deceased was born in Devonshire, England, and came to Canada with his brother, Charles Welsman, in 1863 and resided in Toronto about forty-seven years. He took an active interest in municipal affairs and always worked for all things pertaining to the betterment of the country. He was known to all as a man of upright character and a kindly and cheerful disposition. He was a member of the Church of Christ and faithful in the work of the ministry and his life has been likened to a good seed, ready and willing to be sown. He was in his 77th year and had resided here about a year and a half. His wife, who predeceased him about six years, was Miss Elizabeth Hillier of Toronto. One son and a daughter survive—Rev. G. C. Welsman of this town, Wilfred of Pease River District, Alta., and Oliver of Saskatchewan.
